

Lord Jesus!

Yes to these forty days. Yes to life with you in the desert. Yes to self-awareness. Yes to the sure path of faith. Yes to discipleship. Yes to resurrection.

Take me to that low place where my feet may touch the ground. Teach me the art of walking and trusting. Lead me into the rhythms of life and the patterns that make me whole.

I invite your healing presence into all of my relationships. I offer you gratitude for your great mercy. I rest in the knowledge that your spirit does for me what I cannot do for myself.

Let us therefore walk hand-in-hand, as friends, into a future full of hope.

Amen!